

Construction Studies Teacher Professional Development March/April 2022

Face to Face Workshop—Principles of nZEB: Ventilation

Following on from our last nZEB workshop where the focus was airtightness, this workshop will explore another key principle of nZEB—ventilation.

At this workshop we will explore:

- The importance of ventilation in the home.
- Considerations when selecting a ventilation System.
- Building Regulations surrounding Ventilation.
- The nZEB Principles approach to teaching Construction Studies.
